

Adelphians Give Home Concert At Jason Lee Tonight

Having returned from their highly successful tour the Adelphian choir will present a homecoming concert in the Jason Lee Auditorium tonight at 8:30, under the direction of Clyde Keutzer. The choral group will give a varied program.

Leonard Raver, CPS student pianist and choir accompanist, will play a group of two works: Prelude from the "Suite Bergamasque" by Debussy and "Etude" by Paul Juon.

The program as scheduled follows: "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" by Noah F. Ryder; "All Glory Be To His Holy Name" by Harvey Gaul; "Deep River" arr. by C. A. Scholin; "The Winged Souls" by Arthur Warrell; "Open Our Eyes" by Will C. Macfarlane; "Poor Wayfaring Stranger" arr. by Elie Siegmeister; "Glory and Honor and Laud" by Charles Wood; Prelude from "Suite Bergamasque" by Debussy; "Etude" by Paul Juon; "A Lover's Calendar" by C. W. Lawrence; "Go Way From My Window" by John J. Niles; "Ma Little Banjo" by W. Dichmont; "Joy Is My Song" by Leroy Ostransky; "Sourwood Mountain" by Tom Scott; "Song of the Reapers" by P. I. Tschaikowsky; "Fireflies", Russian folk song; "Cindy" arr. by Harry R. Wilson; "Set Down Servant" arr. by Robert Shaw; "Staccato Etude" by Austris A. Wihtol; "The Rosary" by Ethelbert Nevin; "Italian Street Song" by Victor Herbert.

The Adelphian completed their 17-day tour of the West Coast Sunday at 11:15 p. m.

They enjoyed sunshine during most of the trip. They ran into rain twice—in Roseville and Ashland. However, none of them are sporting any of the suntans worn by a number of the returned vacationers.

Harley Stell, the featured soloist, contacted laryngitis before the first concert. He recovered six days later. Anita Garland substituted during intermission with two of her senior recital numbers. Willard Norman took Harley's place during the solo numbers.

The Adelphians needed a new bus by the time they got to Klamath Falls, Oregon. (Hard on the bus, fellas?).

They sang at the First Congregational Church in Los Angeles. This church is one of the city's two largest churches.

The free day in Los Angeles is the most talked-about day of the trip. (You should have seen what I picked up in L. A.—a pair of shoes that is.)

Some of the group went through the CBS station.

Debaters Trek East For Meets

Recent tournaments around the country have drained CPS dry of debaters and orators. One squad of debaters left Sunday, April 3, for Peoria, Illinois, to compete in the National Debate Tournament at Bradley College. They will be advised by Dr. Battin and their roster reads: Jackie Hodgson, Yvonne Battin, Alex Mortillaro, Bill Kid, Ken Campbell and Joyce Cousins.

Meanwhile a second group is preparing to leave April 13 for Missoula, Montana, to enter in an invitational tournament in debate, extemporaneous speaking and oratory. The group will be led by Ellery Capen of the business administration department. Representing CPS in debate will be Jean Hagermeyer and Virginia Saltis. George Loerch, Leo Butigan and Bruce Rector will orate. Edna Neimela and Dan Seymour will do extemporaneous speaking. Otho Halligan will accompany the Missoula group to act as judge at the tournament.

Future Educators Publish Catalogue For High Schools

The Teacher Placement Bureau, under the guidance of Professor E. Delmar Gibbs, of the department of Education, has recently put out a brochure with pictures and information regarding 46 prospective teachers.

These teachers will be available to high schools when they graduate from the College this spring. They are: Joy Adams, Michael Alvarado, Semon Anderson, Bill Armstrong, Aldo Benedetti, Douglas Bowman, Marion Bue, Aubrey Clayton, Leo Cozza, Gweneth Dean, Max Dubois, Betty Jo Edele, Eugene Falk, Richard Falk, Frank Gustafson, Ruth Gustafson, Arthur Hansen, Ruth Heggerness, Donald Henry, Frances Holt.

Peggy Anne Hume, Robert Hunter, Warren Jaech, Ralph Johnston, Jack Leggee, Doreen Lockstone, Wiley Mellish, Jessie Lee Mock, Grant Mortenson, Harold Murphy, Lois Phillips, Frank Price, Patricia Purvis, Dorothy Schweinler, Earl Schwyart, Harold Snodgrass, William Sparks, Harley Stell, Merle Stevens, Kirkland Stewart, Arthur Stok, Bill Sullivan, Barbara Thomas, Orin Thompson, Rolland Upton, Roger Westby and Paul Yeend.

Major fields of teaching range from biology, chemistry, mathematics, physics, to business administration, home economics, political science, history, music, speech, English, French and Spanish.

IRC Hears Speech By Italian Consul

Letterio Carlo, from the Italian Consulate in Seattle, will speak at the International Relations Club meeting Tuesday night. His topic will be "The Rise of Italian Fascism." Carlo grew up in Egypt, returned to Italy in 1940 and spent two years in Germany during the war.

The meeting will be held at 522 North J beginning at 7:30. Cars will be in front of the SUB at 7:15. All interested students are invited to attend this meeting.

Cercle Francais Will Meet Tuesday

The meeting of the Cercle Francais which was to take place last Tuesday, has been postponed to April 12. It will be held in B24, South Hall, at 7:30 p. m.

Spring Play Cast Begin Rehearsals

The annual spring play will be "If I Were King" by Justin Huntly McCarthy. This is a romantic play in four acts, set in the Fifteenth Century.

It is the story of Francois Villon, a dashing young commoner, who tells his friends what he would do if he were king.

Louis XI, king of France, hears him one night in a tavern, and as a result lets him act as Lord Constable of France for seven days. And at the end of seven days, Villon is to be hanged for the attempted murder of Thibaut D'Aussigny, the former Lord Constable. The light opera, "The Vagabond King," is taken from this play.

Casting for this play has been going on this week, under the direction of Martha Pearl Jones; rehearsals begin immediately. The play will be given at the end of April.

Hutchins Speaks at Educator Conclave

Registrar Dick Smith, Dean W. S. Powell, Professor E. D. Gibbs, and Gibb's assistant, Bonnie Heintz are attending an Inland Empire meeting in Spokane today. The meeting is a gathering of Northwest educators at which Chancellor Robert Hutchins, of Chicago University, is the main speaker.

Batten Takes Office In Primary Vote; Election Shows Poor Student Turnout

Scoring 185 votes more than his opponent, John Sampson, Bill Stivers was elected ASCPS president by 416 students in the final election early this week.

A total of 647 Loggers, out of a school population of approximately 2000, were interested enough in the election to cast their votes for the presidency.

Yvonne Battin was elected in the primaries by an overwhelming majority to the office of vice-president.

The new ASCPS secretary, Nancy Riehl, gained 374 votes to be elected to that office. Her opponent, Gordon Jones, polled 254 votes.

Taking over the reigns of senior representative to central board for next year will be Bob Angeline. Bob received 376 votes, while Jean Tipple garnered 259.

A narrow margin of only six votes separated Howie Meadowcroft, the new junior representative, from Ralph Wehmhoff. Howie had 315 ballots cast in his favor, while Ralph received 309.

With 326 tallies on her side, Joanne Stebbins became the new sophomore representative. Her opponent, Jerry Snuffin, received 283.

Beverly Johnson will wear the crown of the May Queen when the May Day festivities roll around. Anita Garland and Janice Ludwig will assist her in the duties of the day.

Bruce Andreason will lead next year's yell squad. His 273 votes were more than enough to win for him the King position on the squad. Barbara Albertson, Chuck Caddy, Paddy Black and Rachel Haskell followed in the order given.

Both amendments to the constitution were passed. The rally committee and the Chinook recreational manager proposals will go into effect with beginning of the new term. One amendment puts the recreational manager of Chinook on Central Board. The other set the rally committee in motion.

Daffodil Show Opens Today at Fieldhouse

Daffodil Queen Mary Gropper and her court will reign over the Daffodil Festival in the CPS Fieldhouse.

Masses of Daffodils will decorate the Fieldhouse. In the center will be a long table, decorated by the professional bulb growers. At the north and center of the building will be tiered displays by the Garden Clubs, who will also decorate the walks.

Another Garden Club feature will be competitive exhibits set on tables along the side walls of the building. Commercial displays will occupy the inside corners.

Queen Mary's throne, at the southern wall, will be decorated by the Tacoma Park Board.

The Festival's entertainment program will begin at 2:00 p. m., with organ music by Ted Johnson. Queen Mary's coronation at 8:30 will be followed by another Ted Johnson organ recital.

Tomorrow's program will open with Ted Johnson at the organ. A Daffodil Variety Show, starting at 7:30 p. m., will feature Jack Potter's band, comedians Al Tone and Ted Reddington, singers Yvonne Gauche and Joan Storhow, marimbists Carol and Camelia Hinds, and organist Ted Johnson.

Sunday's program begins at 3:00 p. m. with Ted Johnson still at his organ, accompanying the Stewart Junior High Choir, directed by Wilbur Arnold. Margaret Myles will sing, accompanied by Leonard Raver. Jeanne Winters will direct the singing of the Jason Lee Junior High Choir. Janice Ludwig will play several harp selections. The closing numbers will be by the Sumner High School Choir, under the direction of Eric Nelson.

KTNT's Bob Boardway will be master of ceremonies for Friday and Saturday. Sunday's MC will be Professor John O'Conner.

Service Organizations Need Material Aid For Upkeep

The next problem that's going to shake its head under our noses is that of how to finance a service organization. After that problem is solved we're going to be faced with determining just which organization is a service organization.

This week in Central Board, a spokesman for the Knights of the Log presented a tail of woe on the difficulty the organization has operating in the red. The Knights had a bill of some $25 outstanding. Fifteen dollars was owed the Tamanawas for the Knights' picture in the annual. Around $10 was due for the traditional candy the Knights passed out at Christmas time.

Central Board voted to pay the bill.

The Tamanawas had already cut the picture bill in half because the service organizations can't pay for them. The bill for the Tamanawas was originally $30.

Someone pointed out that even though the passing of candy at Christmas time was a tradition, it should not be continued if the organization could not pay for the candy.

Somebody else said that the service organizations are not allowed to raise funds for the operation of their groups.

The Spurs, the National Sophomore Women's Honorary on the campus, received funds from Women's Federation. The Spurs also sell pompoms at the Homecoming game.

These service organizations are a necessity for the successful operation of several school and administration projects.

The Spurs and the Knights do the ushering for the chapels and the evening programs. During freshman week the Spurs handle registration. Registration is no small picnic.

It takes a great deal of the service members' time to perform these duties. Sure it's an honor to be a member of the organization, but aren't we putting a lot of pain with that honor. It's no fun to find you're working your head off for somebody, and then they won't permit you the finances to keep your head above water.

The suggestion has been made that if the women on the campus organize into the Associated Women Students the Spurs could receive their upkeep from the AWS funds. The same could be true for the Knights and the Associated Men Students. This method would be better than instigating another type of soliciting—perhaps you would like to buy some fudge.

This is a student problem brewing—let's hear some student answers.

Hail the Blooming Daffodil; The Fieldhouse Opens Today

Spring is sprung—the grass has riz—I'm glad the daffodils is (ouch!)—for we get to house the daffodils in the Memorial Fieldhouse for the annual Daffodil Festival.

There will be no more delayed-building stories about the Fieldhouse. It will be open to the public today to welcome the Daffodil Festival.

We are glad that there is a building large enough to hold the various daffodil displays, and accommodate the entertainment program—and we are glad CPS has it.

Many CPS students are participating in the program. CPS is also sponsoring a float in the parade tomorrow morning. Some of the fraternities are also entering floats.

Not only can we welcome the Daffodil Show, but we can congratulate the students who are working to help make the show a success.

Margaret Myles Scheduled As Standard Hour Soloist

By BOB PETERSON

Margaret Myles, CPS voice instructor and widely known Northwest contralto, is scheduled as guest soloist on the Easter Sunday program of the Standard Hour over NBC.

Miss Myles will sing with the Seattle Symphony orchestra under the demonstrative direction of Eugene Linden.

Singing Bach's "Have Mercy, Lord, on Me," and Schubert's "Omnipotence." Miss Myles will demonstrate to a nation-wide audience what is already well known to musical circles in the Northwest—that her voice is one of professional quality.

Linden has announced that the orchestral program will include excerpts from Handel's "Messiah" and Mozart's "The Magic Flute."

Sunday afternoon at the Memorial Fieldhouse Miss Myles may be heard as part of the daffodil festival. CPS music student Ted Johnson is official organist.

Tomlinson Travels To Washington During Vacation

Dr. Warren Tomlinson, professor of history and German and foreign student advisor, spent his vacation in Cleveland and Washington, D. C. Dr. Tomlinson attended conferences and hob-nobbed with such notables as Representative Tollefson and Senator Cain.

In Cleveland, Dr. Tomlinson attended the Conference of the National Association of Foreign Students Advisors. According to Dr. Tomlinson, the conference ended with high hopes. Discussion centered on the Fulbright plan of student exchange, already accepted by nine nations: England, France, Italy, Belgium, Greece, India, Burma, China and New Zealand. The Fulbright plan is comparable to a world-wide Rhodes scholarship plan.

A 2-million dollar aid program, under the Marshall plan, is expected to be confirmed this week. It will benefit Chinese students in the U. S., who are doing technical and scientific studies.

State Department representatives at the conference, Tomlinson added, were willing to cooperate to the utmost in problems concerning foreign students in the U. S.

Dr. Tomlinson arrived in the national capital at an opportune time. Cherry blossoms were at their peak and the sun registered a pleasant 80 degrees. During his one-day stay, Prof. Tomlinson found time to visit the National Art Gallery and Smithsonian Institution.

Film Society Shows Russ-French Movie

A French version of a Russian literary classic—Dostoevski's "Crime and Punishment"—will be featured on next Thursday's program of the CPS Film Society. The movie stars Pierre Blanchard as Raskolnikov and Hary Baur as the relentless inspector.

The accompanying documentary, "Spanish Gypsies," was filmed at a gypsy camp in Granada, Spain, and it features authentic flamenco folk-songs and dances.

There are seven more programs after next Thursday's. Here they are, with the features in capital letters:

April 21—Cadet Rouselle, Light Reflections, ROBIN HOOD.

April 28—The Glass Bell, LA BOHEME.

May 5—A Day in Spring, Totems, THREE MUSKETEERS.

May 12—Little Fantasy, THE STONE FLOWER, THE BAKER'S WIFE.

May 19—Klee Wyck, THIEF OF BAGDAD, LOWER DEPTHS.

May 26—La Poulette Grise, Krakatoa, ANNA CHRISTIE.

June 2—Crofters, Salmon Run, THE BLACK PIRATE.

Trail Staff Has Surprise Turnover

It's business not-quite-as-usual in the Trail office this week. Changes in staff assignments include: Ken Adair from news editor to business manager and Jim Lantz and Chris Nickolas to take over as co-news editors.

The switch became necessary when John Youngman vacated the position of business manager and withdrew from school.

SUB Table Service Awaits Bigger Staff

Proposed table-service at the SUB fountain was still proposed and postponed this week, due to a personnel shortage. Leroy Connelly, fountain manager, re-asserted that table-service would go into operation after a staff enlargement.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:

I should like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation and gratitude for those students who supported my election campaign. For the people that signed my petition and made posters I extend a special thank you. The final outcome of the election will be a clear indication of the will of the interested members of our student body.

I shall actively support those officers duly elected. Continuing into the future, any service I can render unto the student governing body, and student body as a whole will be willingly given. I'm sure we can look forward to a prosperous and eventful school year in 1949 and '50.

BOB RINKER.

April 4, 1949

Dear Editor,

The March 18, 1949 edition of the Trail published a letter by Jim Lantz. This is an open letter to Mr. Lantz.

Dear Mr. Lantz,

May I ask who is your advanced, French, student friend? You and your friend are either very mistaken or have a warped sense of perception.

Under the disguise of where soliciting should be confined, you unjustifiably attacked the French department; accusing it of unfair practices. I'll admit your charges were vague, Mr. Lantz, but the

Job to Be Awarded In Photo Contest

A complete picture assignment with Science Illustrated magazine will be the first prize in the annual collegiate photography contest. The salon is sponsored by Kappa Alpha Mu, National photographic honorary.

To be eligible for the award, the photographer must enter six to ten prints spread over three of the five classes. The five classes are News, Sports, Pictorial, Feature, and Industrial. W. J. Bell, executive secretary, says the grand prize will be awarded to the college photographer whose entries, considered as a group, are judged the best.

Entry blanks may be had by writing Kappa Alpha Mu, 18 Walter Williams Hall, School of Journalism, Columbia, Mo.

inferences were not. And as a result, the dignity and integrity of the French department is being jeopardized.

I was present, when the announcement was made, and not one word was spoken, nor any implication made, which could be interpreted as insisting that any contribution be, as you say "prudent". By the way Mr. Lantz, if you will look in Webster's dictionary, you will find that Prudent means highly sensible. You were correct, Mr. Lantz, when you said, "As I understand it, contribution is not compulsory."

If the French Club wishes to take up a collection for needy people in the country whose language they are studying, I cannot understand why anyone should mind.

Mr. Lantz, you question the necessity of an educational institution taking part in heritable practices, while you enjoy the benefits of the money which many generous people have donated to C.P.S. in the past. If we hope to improve the world and brighten our future, isn't the college student a good place to start, Mr. Lantz? If college students cannot act like civilized people, can we expect others to do likewise?

Perhaps what the college really needs is a few people who will think about what they say before they speak. Right Mr. Lantz? Your letter was signed "Sincerely. Wer you sincere? Your letter reeked with so much untruth that it was repulsive.

I'm sure that many of the French students, who know the truth will vouch for the truth of this letter.

Yours truly,
ARMAND BRUNELLE

Note: What dictionary do you advise for spelling, Mr. Brunelle?
J. LANTZ.

Daffodil Festival Stars CPS Floats

This year, for the first time, CPS will be represented in the Daffodil Parade. Several fraternities are entering stunt groups. The College is entering a float.

Ralph Wehmhoff, who is in charge of float decorations, has asked for help. He says he needs volunteers this afternoon to assist with the decorating.

tion and watched the rehearsal of the Franco-American show (with Bing Crosby, Margaret Whiting and Evelyn Knight). Another group took a bus tour of L. A. and Hollywood, snooping through night-clubs, restaurants, and movie stars' homes. Rochester's home is bigger than Jack Benny's. Gretchen Swayze won $2 on the Double or Nothing program. Others visited the Palladium and the Brown Derby.

Everyone met at Clifton's Cafeteria the next day and ended up by singing "Oklahoma" for the other patrons.

A representative of Samuel Goldwyn wanted a picture of the Adelphians standing on the steps of the Goldwyn studio to put in Life Magazine. He didn't get it. The group was scattered far and wide over L. A.

An NBC representative asked the Adelphians to come back next year to sing over a nation-wide hook-up.

On the way home they sang at Roseville. During a thunder storm a transformer was knocked out and they sang in the dark. When the lights came on, a moth came with them. The moth continued to annoy Director Keutzer by flying around his head. The Adelphians nearly ended their performance in a hysteria of laughter.

April Fool's Day gifts were given out in Heppner, Ore. Professor

Keutzer received a can of fly spray. During the concert at Toppenish a dog wandered into the church. He tried to bark a solo and had to be put out. (He couldn't replace Harley Stell.)

Chuck Morrison invited the entire group for turkey dinner at his home in Toppenish.

One horrid memory of the trip is the fried eggs served nearly every morning. To this memory the following verse by Chuck Morrison is dedicated:

I think that I shall never beg
To see another well-fried egg.
An egg, no doubt, which with great pain
Upon a straw-covered nest was lain.
An egg which in the morning can
Be broken into a frying pan.
If eggs are laid for fools like me,
When breakfast comes I'm sure I'll die.
Hark, dear hosts, and please do listen,
I'll have my eggs as spring-fried chicken.

German and English music will be the topic of Manuel Rosenthal's seventh conference to be given Monday at 4 p. m. and Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the Faculty Lounge.

Let The Chips Fall . . .

By CECE REIMER, Sports Editor

At the end of successful seasons in both basketball and football it seems only logical that we look ahead to the prospects for next year's teams.

Football, in which the Loggers tied for the top spot in the conference, should take a turn for the better. With only four varsity men graduating in June (Pollom, Horjes, Mansfield and Hedges), possibilities for another championship team would seem to be in the offing.

Scheduled to start at quarterback is John Heinrich, jr. (son of the coach). Heinrich has been attending the Logger school since the beginning of the semester, after transferring from Washington State, where, rumor has it that he was scheduled for a starting berth in the Cougar backfield.

Coach Heinrich, ever on the alert for high school talent for his ball teams, may have two other passing stars to work with, come the grid season.

Art Viafore, of Lincoln, and Bobby Hoskins, from Stadium, are both seriously considering CPS.

With the addition of these players, the big defect in the Logger attack would be remedied.

On the basketball front, several of the high school stars will probably enroll at the Logger school next fall. Among these who are considering CPS are: Mike McCutcheon, all-stater from Seattle's Garfield high school; Olympia's Petersen and DeGarmo, and Bellarmine's Dick Jensen and Don Hermesen.

Sawdust . . . Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa, a Methodist school about the size of CPS is getting a new field house, too. It's scheduled to be finished in time for next year's basketball season (that's what they think) . . . Bob Pifferini, star in San Jose State College football line-up, is helping to coach the San Jose Frosh baseball team . . . Ted Tappe, Junior College All-American basketball player from Olympic J. C. in Bremerton, is seriously thinking of going to CPS.

Kappa Sigs Capture Intramural Top Spots

Kappa Sig teams took top honors in both Maroon and White league intramural basketball play this year. They did it with seven wins and no losses in both leagues.

Don Danielson's 13.4 average for the Kappa Sigs' Maroon five was a big factor in the team's showing. Wayne Mann, Carrol Walters, Carl Niemi, Ed Annas, Mory Halleck, Brian Kepka, Ben Fawcett are Maroon team members.

In the White league, winning

Kappa Sig team members were:

Cam Haslam, Dean Meyers, Bud

Thomsen, Ken Langlow, Stan

Mermaids to Hold 'Mural Swim Meet

The CPS swimming club is holding an all-school, all-women's swim meet Thursday afternoon, April 21, in the YWCA pool. The swim, at 3:30, will be open to any spectators wishing to spectate (also women).

Club president Georgeanna Thompson announced posters are up in lower Jones Hall and the WAA office. Girls wishing to enter any of the events should sign their names on these posters.

The events:

Speed—25 yard freestyle, 50 yard freestyle, 25 yard back crawl, 25 yard breaststroke, 75 yards in any style.

Nonswimmers—25 yard dogpaddle.

Diving—standing front, running front, and two optional.

Form—breast stroke, elementary back stroke, and side stroke.

Special event—balloon race.

Chinook News

There will be no ski instruction this week at Cayuse Pass because of the scheduled Daffodil Ski-Sup Races at Paradise Valley, Sunday, April 10.

The Chinook-sponsored trip to Paradise is available to all students and their friends. Buses for both skiers and spectators will leave from in front of Jones Hall, 7:30 Sunday morning. The trip-price is 50c for Chinook members; $1.00 to all others.

CPS has entered two skiers in the Daffodil Race—Weldon Howe and Roar Ormaasen.

Instruction at Cayuse Pass will resume the following week.

Chinook is sponsoring a ski trip for those who want to see the daffodil cup races at Paradise this week end.

The outing has been arranged by the Chinook organization. Buses will leave from the campus to Paradise. Chinook members will be charged $.50 for bus transportation. While non-members are cordially invited they will be charged $1.00 for transportation.

SPC Wins From CPS In Season Opener 7-6

After dropping their initial tilt to Seattle Pacific College Tuesday, the Logger diamond men are prepping for their first conference game with PLC next Wednesday at Jefferson Park.

The Lutes will have no shortage of moundsmen when they meet the Loggers. Two returning hurlers—Lowell Knutson and Wayne Brock—have been supplemented this year with Freshman Gerald Hefty, who is scheduled to work on the mound today for the Lutes when they meet Seattle University at Parkland.

The Loggers' first tilt with Seattle Pacific University ended in a 7 to 6 win for Seattle after the Seattleites pushed in the winning tally in the 13th inning. The score at the end of the regular seven was tied at six all. For the next two innings the two teams battled on even terms.

Then came the 13th inning and Logger hurler Hank Semmern walked Seattle's Perry Stangvik. Then, when catcher Bus Mitchell's attempted throw-out of Stangvik at second went wild, the Seattle shortstop promptly went for third and then home with the winning run.

Seattle got off to a big start with two runs in the first inning. A hit batter, a bunt, a fielder's choice and a two-base error brought in the first two runs of the game.

In the next inning, Logger right fielder Jack Tanner, who incidentally got two hits in three times at the plate, got to first on an error. Tanner went to third when Don Greenwood hit a double and then scored on a wild throw, producing the Loggers' first run.

Weldon Stillwell held the Seattleites in their half of the third while the Loggers came through with two runs to gain a 3-2 advantage.

Stillwell bowed out of the game in the fourth, after Seattle got four successive singles and Stillwell erred to give Seattle three runs and a 5-3 lead. Bob Snodgrass took over mound duties for the Loggers.

Mitchell and Tanner each banged out singles in the fifth, which, added to an infield out gave the Loggers one more tally. The Loggers got two more runs in the sixth frame to give them a 6-5 lead over SPC.

Seattle came back with a run in the seventh, adding up two walks and a single to produce the tying tally.

Seattle's pitching brothers, Dick and Bob Bivins, held the Loggers scoreless for the rest of the way. Bob got credit for the win, with CPS, Hank Semmern being charged with the loss.

WAA Softball Turnout Opens Spring Play

The election of next year's officers is one of the important issues which President Ruth Ann Potter has on the agenda for the WAA general meeting Monday in the faculty lounge at 7:30.

Nominations for the offices are president, Jean Tippie and Lita Johnson; vice-president, Jeanne Shugard and Roberta Westmoreland; secretary, Ferne McCullough and Betty Troxel; treasurer, Freda Garnet and Carol Sue Petrich; program chairman, Chris Ostrum and Nadine Clarey; publicity chairman, Jo Copple and Claire McNeill.

A vote will be taken to choose two CPS representatives to the Athletic Federation of College Women meeting in Wisconsin soon.

The spring sports season is under way with tennis, horseshoes, archery, bowling and softball being offered. Softball turnouts began today with both inter-class and inter-sorority tournaments scheduled.

The Greek "element" on the campus will sponsor its annual all-college dance tomorrow evening. The theme, in keeping with the Greek atmosphere, is Aristotle's Tottle. Fellowship Hall is the scene of the "ancient" affair, Ivy Cozort and his orchestra will provide music from 9-12.

Dress for the occasion will be suits for the men and afternoon attire for the ladies (no flowers).

Intermission entertainment is planned. Ray Harbert will serve as M. C.

Assisting Dave Wales, general chairman for the dance, are John Sinkovich, Ed Lane, Al Gehr, Rog Engberg, Sandy Bremner, Len Holten, Chris Hoffman, Ken Light, Rod Smith, John Larson, Ken Dickenson and Ray Harbert.

Chaperons will be Mr. and Mrs. Enright, Dr. and Mrs. Fehlandt, Dr. and Mrs. Sprenger, Mr. and Mrs. Murtland, Mr. and Mrs. Goman, and Mr. and Mrs. Riconosciuto.

Tickets may be purchased at the door for $1.50 a couple or from any of the fraternity presidents.
